RUDEKO was refused a U.S. immigration visa based on derogatory information contained in a CIC Report of February 1949, to the effect that he was engaged in Communist Party activities in Wuerzburg, Germany. The CIC charges were investigated thoroughly by KUBARK and the charges were found to be unsubstantiated, highly improbable in view of RUDEKO's anti-Communist record. In view of the KUBARK findings, it was requested that the CIC files be amended or corrected and that the charges be dropped. This action was a necessary precondition for the re-opening of the RUDEKO case by the immigration authorities, who are bound by CIC disclosures. (EQMA-15515, 19 May 1955.) CIC refuted the derogatory information in EQSA-6051, 8 October 1955. Munich Base files indicate no other derogatory information. 4. COS/O: Check all U.S. Agencies.
